Think about something that makes you uncomfortable, upset, powerless, sad or angry. Because Jesus has authority over everything, we can boldly ask Him for help. Use the following prayer to help you:

“Jesus, you have authority over _____. Please work in this, use your power to change this, not just for my own comfort but so I can praise you, for your glory. You are powerful, you are victorious and nothing is too hard for you because you are in charge.

Thank you! Amen.”

“In love he predestined us for adoption to himself as sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace, with which he has blessed us in the Beloved.”

Ephesians 1:5-6
