The Unity and Compromise of the Church (Acts 15:1-21)

Here are three basic questions you can always ask in any bible study:

- What does this text teach us about God?
- What does this text teach us about ourselves?
- If this text is true, what should we do to obey this teaching? This answer ought to be specific, in that it can be clearly measured.

Here are some specific questions about this text:

- Why is it essential that we not add anything to the gospel?
- What additions have you heard people make an issue with in terms of the gospel? For example, 'you must believe and be baptized to have forgiveness of sins' etc.
- Why is it important for the unity of the body to limit our freedom in order to not offend others?
- Have you ever limited your freedom for the sake of unity in the church?
