Asaph Goes to Church - Psalm 73

Here are three basic questions you can always ask in any bible study:

- What does this text teach us about God?
- What does this text teach us about ourselves?
- If this text is true, what should we do to obey this teaching? This answer ought to be specific, in that it can be clearly measured.

Here are some specific questions about this text:

1. What questions in your life remain unanswered by God? How do these unanswered questions affect your relationship with him? Your relationship to the church?
2. What observation did Asaph make about those who don't follow God in the world? Can you relate to his struggle personally? How so?
3. What changed Asaph's viewpoint? What does conversion entail according to the Bible? In what sense is conversion ongoing in the Christian life? What does this teach us about the life of discipleship in this world?
4. What brings Asaph consolation in the passage? How does this consolation help us when we see others prosper who don't follow God?
