John 1:1-18 - Light Has Come

Here are three basic questions you can always ask in any bible study:

- What does this text teach us about God?
- What does this text teach us about ourselves?
- If this text is true, what should we do to obey this teaching? This answer ought to be specific, in that it can be clearly measured.

Here are some specific questions about this text:

- God's word describes the world as filled with darkness. What does that mean for the world? What does that mean for you?
- Why does the world reject the light of the world?
- What does the 'word' logos mean as it describes Jesus?
- Jesus coming in the flesh means that we can see more clearly what God is like. What does Jesus show us about who God is?
- How does Jesus change us? He gives us a new identity and a new life. What does this mean for us in daily life?
