Romans 2:1-16 - We Judge Ourselves

Here are three basic questions you can always ask in any bible study:

- What does this text teach us about God?
- What does this text teach us about ourselves?
- If this text is true, what should we do to obey this teaching? This answer ought to be specific, in that it can be clearly measured.

Here are some specific questions about this text:

- If God judged you for the ways you judged others, but failed to live up to your own standards, what would happen?
- How does God's kindness lead us to repentance?
- Since God judges each person according to what they do, how does that undercut our excuses that we meant to do right?
- It appears that God will judge us based on what we did with the revelation we did know about. How does this bring everyone under God's righteous judgment?
