Romans 2:17-29 - Religion Cannot Make You Right With God

Here are three basic questions you can always ask in any bible study:

- What does this text teach us about God?
- What does this text teach us about ourselves?
- If this text is true, what should we do to obey this teaching? This answer ought to be specific, in that it can be clearly measured.

Here are some specific questions about this text:

- How do you depend on your religious practices or position to be the foundation of getting right with God?
- Why is this contrary to how God works?
- How can we avoid relying on our religious practices or our religious position to be right with God?
- How can you focus your attention on God's grace on a daily basis?
