Romans 7:13-25 - Finding Hope and Life in Our Struggle With Sin

Here are three basic questions you can always ask in any bible study:

- What does this text teach us about God?
- What does this text teach us about ourselves?
- If this text is true, what should we do to obey this teaching? This answer ought to be specific, in that it can be clearly measured.

Here are some specific questions about this text:

- How does the reality of Paul's Christian life encourage you in your own life?
- Look at the refrain of verses 24-25: what do you need to emphasize or believe more deeply and why?
- Recall and testify one way that God has been faithful to encourage, challenge, or change you recently.
